

2018-2019 Student Times

At the recent School Committee meeting, approval was given for next year's school start and end times for students. Additionally, a draft school calendar of dates was shared. If you are planning a vacation during the summer months, keep in mind that the first week of school will most likely be the last week of August. If you use a daycare provider, please alert them to the new school hours for 2018-2019.
